the amount of the first replenishment of the trading account * the percentage of the bonus = the amount of the Bonus;

A detailed specification for groups of symbols is available in the Client's Personal Account in the "Bonus" section.
- 2.7. In the event that a certain number of lots were traded for one or more groups of symbols according to clause 2.6. of this Agreement, this volume is multiplied by the rate of points per lot and the number of points is summed to obtain the accumulated number of points.
